CAMP INFORMATION

All camps are designed to provide a fun environment for all ages and skill levels. The beginner to the very advanced player will be challenged according to their experience and ability. The quality staff is comprised of college soccer coaches and players. The NDSU Soccer camps are open to any and all entrants (limited only by number, age, grade level and/or gender).

Day Camp, ages 5-14: Campers will work on technical abilities while incorporating those techniques into fun activities, in which all participants will be challenged within the proper level.

Elite Girls ID Camp: Designed for the highly competitive and serious soccer player who aspires to play in college. This is an overnight camp that is structured in the format of a college preseason and exposes the player to the rigors of the college game.

Goalkeeping: Goalkeepers will be separated for portions of each day for specific goalkeeper activities. Sessions will be run by camp goalkeeping staff.

Teams: Teams are encouraged to attend camp and will be trained as a team.

Facilities: The North Dakota State Dacotah Field, stadium and practice fields at the Ellig Sports Complex will be utilized.

North Dakota State University does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, public assistance status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or status as a U.S. veteran. Direct inquiries to the Vice President for Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach, 205 Old Main, (701) 231-7708.

Accommodations for Guests with Disabilities NDSU is required to provide reasonable accommodations for guests with disabilities. Examples of accommodations include a sign language interpreter, a dietary accommodation, or a wheel-chair accessible room. In the event there are additional expenses involved, it is the responsibility of the sponsor to pay. Guests are required to contact the sponsor a minimum of 3 weeks before the event.

For more information on Bison Soccer Camps, please contact Karli Kopietz at karli.kopietz@ndsu.edu

Medical Attention: A full-time trainer will be on site to administer attention to minor injuries and ailments.

All campers must return the completed medical form with the deposit. As a condition of enrollment, a disclaimer must be signed and insurance information must be provided on the back of the registration form.
